- Eric Roberson - Performed each of the following tasks for L02:
 1. Setup the GitHub Repo for L02 at <https://github.com/ericroberson-HOU/ITAI-1371-ML-Labs>.
 2. Completed the assignment for Google Colab using the .IPYNB, converted the file to PDF.
 3. Uploaded the L02 .PDF to GitHub repo and also to Canvas.

 5. Notified Prof. Rao of the difficulty I personally faced interpreting the instructions for this assignment. While the first sentence says L02 is a group project, the rest of the instructions say for each student to complete the assignment individually.

- Yuanyuan Kou

I read the notebook instructions and worked through the code cells in order. I ran the code and checked the number of samples, features, and classes in the Iris dataset. I reviewed the mean, standard deviation, scatter plot, and bar chart results. When I had an error, I learned that I needed to run the earlier cells first. I also completed the analysis and reflection section and checked the notebook before exporting it as a PDF.
